About ADSL 2+ Regions

Due to varying costs imposed by Telecommunications companies, we classify telephone exchanges across Australia into 3 regions. Each region has access to different plans and pricing for ADSL 2+ services from Virtual Access.

Before you order, find out what region you are in by visiting our web site (<http://www.virtual.net.au/goto.php?page=dslinfo>) or calling 1300 132351. If you select a plan from outside your region, your order will not be accepted and we will contact you to make an alternate selection. Please check with us first to avoid unnecessary delays in processing your order!

About our plans:

- On all plans we count only your download traffic.
- Any Time plans are charged for excess usage at the rate of $0.003/Mb (or $3/Gb), in 1Mb increments.
- Capped Any Time plans are not charged for excess usage. If usage in the preceding 30 days is in excess of your plan allowance, your service speed will be reduced to 64/64 Kbps for the day.
- Capped n+n plans have two usage allowances—one for peak times, and one for off-peak times. These plans are not charged for excess usage. If usage in the preceding 30 days for either peak or off-peak time period is in excess of your plan allowance, your service speed will be reduced to 64/64 Kbps for the day for the corresponding time period. It is possible to be slowed down in peak times only, off-peak times only, or both on any given day.
- Where applicable, peak time is 8AM until Midnight each day. Off peak time is from Midnight until 8AM each day. Times are based on your local time zone.

and any necessary telephone line filters, and for the payment of associated costs if applicable. You are also responsible for obtaining any necessary training to use the Service.

You will indemnify us in respect of all costs, damages, loss whatsoever including any third party claims or costs, howsoever arising from any default, breach or termination of this Agreement by you.

You agree that should you terminate the Service you will immediately pay to us any Charges due including cancellation fees as advised by us.

You agree that we may use a Third Party Supplier for the provision of this Service. You agree that you will not contact any of our Third Party Suppliers for any reason, and that if you do contact one of our Third Party Suppliers that you will be liable for all costs imposed on us by our Third Party Supplier as a result of this contact.

You acknowledge that service fees are paid in advance, and specifically are due for payment by the due date shown on each invoice. Should a payment not be received by this date, You will be considered in default. You acknowledge that if your account should be considered in default, that we may at our discretion:

If You remain in default beyond one month, you will further be responsible for any collection fees (including legal fees and any other costs) incurred by us as a result of the collection of outstanding monies.

If You are in default for more than 7 days on 3 or more occasions, we may elect to decrease your invoice frequency and/or require You to pay a security bond equivalent to 3 months Service Charges.

9. Service Description

The Service uses Asymmetrical Digital Subscriber Line (ADSL or ADSL2+) technology.

Any transmission speeds referred to by us refer to the maximum theoretical speed achievable with the Service under ideal conditions, and you acknowledge that actual speeds may be different than the theoretical speeds.

Speeds may vary for reasons which include but are not limited to Third Party Supplier network congestion, Third Party Supplier line interference or quality degradation, Internet Congestion, errors in the configuration of Your equipment, or problems with compatibility of Your equipment.

Speed of service may also be deliberately restricted by us when, for services with a flat-rate or capped pricing option, Your download allowance is exceeded in any 30-day rolling period. When speed is restricted in this manner, such restriction shall be removed once the service usage for the previous 30-day rolling period decreases below the appropriate threshold as described by the customer's Schedule.

The Service is provided on an "as is" basis and we cannot guarantee the provision of the Service to you where the service is reliant on a Third Party Supplier.

You agree that only equipment approved for connection to the Telstra network will be used with the Service.

You agree that any other telephony equipment used on the same line as the Service must be isolated from interference by the use of a ADSL line filter.

The service is only available as an overlay to an existing copper local loop provided by Telstra. Should you cancel your telephone service provided by the local loop, the Service will also cease to function and this Agreement will be terminated (See clause 5).

Additional Telstra service features may interfere with the supply of Service. These include but are not limited to: Customer Loop Metering, InContact, OnRamp, Payphone, Siteline. A complete list is available on request.

You must direct all service and performance enquires to Virtual Access' Helpdesk, and not to our Third Party Suppliers. If you contact our Third Party Suppliers regarding the Service, and as a result our Third Party Suppliers levy charges to Virtual Access, you agree to pay these fees plus a $33 administration fee per incident.

If you are experiencing Service difficulties or faults, You must provide us with reasonable assistance to diagnose the problem. If we are required to involve Third Party Suppliers in fault rectification and the fault is found to be in Your premises wiring or equipment, an incorrect callout fee from the Third Party Supplier may apply. Virtual Access will take all reasonable steps to avoid the application of callout fees to your service, but should they be incurred by us, you agree to reimburse us for those fees, plus a $33 administration fee.

Data traveling to the Service (downloads) will be metered as part of the included usage and excess usage charges.

Uploads or data sent from the Service are unmetered, except that uploaded data is not to exceed three times the amount of downloaded data. Failure to adhere to this limit will result in either excess data transfer fees, or restriction of service speed until the completion of the service month.

10. No Liability

Due to limitations provided on us by our Third Party Suppliers, the service is not guaranteed to work at all times, and it is generally not possible to provide accurate timeframes for the restoration of a service should it fail. We will use our best endeavors to provide timely restoration of service, however no service level guarantee is provided.

You warrant that the End User to whom Telstra supplies a standard telephone service is the same End User of this Service.

You acknowledge that the Installation of the Service may cause temporary disruption to the standard telephone service used in this application.

You agree to release and indemnify Virtual Access and our Third Party Suppliers for any and all liability arising from the following:

- Disruption in the delivery of your telephone service
- Cancellation of the Service for any reason
- Suspension of the provision of the service to particular Internet Protocol (IP) addresses.
- Cancellation of, or refusal by our Third Party Supplier to provide services deemed by our Third Party Supplier to be incompatible with the provision of ADSL on the analogue line.

11. Interference with the Service

You agree that you will:

- Not interfere with normal operation of the service or any facility, or make either unsafe.
- Allow any Third Party Supplier or Virtual Access safe access to the customer premises if required.

Virtual Access ADSL Terms & Conditions

- Ensure that our Third Party Supplier or Virtual Access are provided with sufficient and timely access to the customer premises to enable our Third Party Supplier or Virtual Access to provide the service.
- If you do not have control or have access to the premises in which the service is delivered, you must:
  - procure for our Third Party Supplier and Virtual Access all such access to the premises as may be required.
  - Indemnify our Third Party Supplier and Virtual Access against any claim by the owner or occupier of the service premises, or any other person, in relation to the entry of those premises.

12. Acceptable Use Policy

You agree not to use your Service for illegal purposes and to conduct yourself in a responsible and considerate manner, and acknowledge that cracking, hacking, crashing, spamming, transmission or storage of copyright infringing or any data which would contravene Australian laws relating to the production and distribution of pornographic or other restricted material, or distribution of viruses or other malevolent programs (generically, "malware") is forbidden, as is unauthorized access to system areas and information on the Virtual Access network or any systems connected to the Virtual Access network.

You agree to accept total responsibility for the content of files owned by you and stored on the Virtual Access network, and also accept total responsibility for any data transferred or caused to be transferred across your Service.

You agree that You will not allow the Service to be used to send unsolicited commercial e-mail via any method. Unsolicited Commercial Email is prohibited in Australia by the Spam Act (2003).

You acknowledge that we do not edit or control the content and form of any information or data accessed through the Service.

You are responsible for maintaining the secrecy and confidentiality of all access information required by you to access to the Service, and you agree not to disclose this to any other person.

You must notify us immediately if any username and/or password are lost or you think that an unauthorized person may be using them. You will be responsible and liable for any unauthorized use of the Service until such time as we are notified of the problem and are able to issue a new password for your service.

You acknowledge that by default TCP/IP port number 25 (SMTP) may be blocked for incoming traffic unless the appropriate option is selected for your Service. You also agree that Virtual Access may block additional ports should we require so for network security or efficiency, and that transparent proxying or caching of data delivered to you may be employed.

You agree to indemnify us against any and all action if we choose to suspend services due to a breach of this Acceptable Use Policy, however caused. We agree to not disrupt services under this clause without appropriate grounds, whether operational or legal in origin. Where feasible and permitted by law, we will contact you prior to taking action under this clause, or as soon as possible afterwards.

13. Technical Support

Our Service includes free technical support for the installation, commissioning and ongoing operation of Service. This support is only provided by telephone or email. Support will only be provided for supported applications as listed on our web site.

14. Warranty on Hardware

The warranty provided on hardware supplied as part of the Connection is limited to the manufacturer's warranty.

15. Allocated IP Address Space

You agree that the IP addresses assigned under this agreement remain the property of Virtual Access or their Third Party Suppliers and that these may change from time to time.

16. Governing Law

17. Assignment

We may assign any or all of the rights and obligations on its part contained herein. You may not assign any of your rights or obligations hereto.
